

Community Planning Training & Development 2001/02

Working to develop and promote effective public participation in architecture, planning and regeneration.

What previous participants say...

'Very useful in terms of focussing on practical examples of one's own work, which needed addressing, clarification and sharing.'
Rachel Pepper, Acton Vale Community Centre, London

'Brilliant, informal and interactive atmosphere. A good mix of people, committed and participatory.'
Hulya Mustafa, Head of Best Value in Housing, DETR, London

'Well organised in a way that promoted shared knowledge.'
Roger James, Secretary, The Portsmouth Society, Hampshire

'Excellent venue, well-run and informative'
Richard Lewis, Terence O'Rourke plc, Bournemouth

Publications

The following items can be ordered from The Prince's Foundation. Check the Foundation's website for a full listing of publications available.

The Community Planning Handbook: how people can shape their cities, towns and villages in any part of the world, Nick Wates, Earthscan, 2000, £14.95 + £2.50 P & P

Sustainable urban extensions; planned through design: a collaborative approach to developing sustainable town extensions through Enquiry by Design, The Prince's Foundation, 2000, £10.00 + £2.50 P & P

Programme Launch Reception

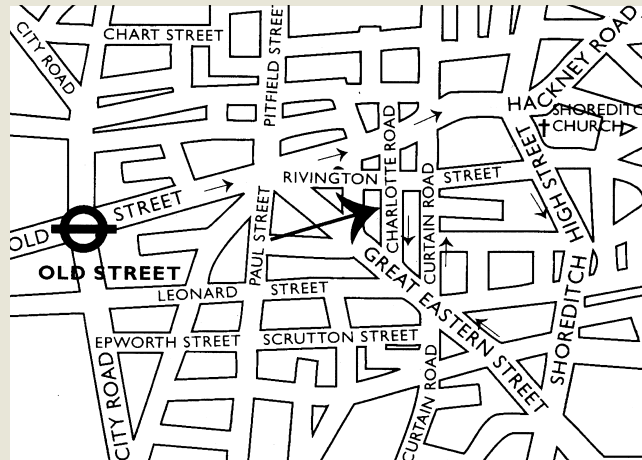

15th October 2001, 5pm-9pm.

Please apply for free tickets on the booking form.

The Community Planning Club

5pm to 8pm after each of the training sessions at the Foundation (see over leaf – mostly first and last Thursdays of each month apart from holiday periods). Ideal opportunity to network over a drink or a meal in a nearby wine bar. See website for directions.

How to find The Prince's Foundation

Community Planning Training & Development 2001/02

Organised by The Prince's Foundation

With financial support from Berkeley Eastoak plc.
In association with The Civic Trust's Neighbourhood Pride programme (sponsored by DTLR).

Programme Manager: Nick Wates

Programme Advisor: Alexandra Rook, The Civic Trust

For more information please contact:

Community Planning Training
The Prince's Foundation
19-22 Charlotte Road
London EC2A 3SG

Tel: 020 7613 8500

Fax: 020 7613 8599

Email: cpt@princes-foundation.org

Website: www.princes-foundation.org

Registered Charity No 1069969

The Prince's Foundation
in association with The Civic Trust

Community Planning Training & Development Programme 2001/02

Community Planning Training and Development Programme 2001/02

- Training modules address the needs of busy practitioners in the public, private and voluntary sectors.
- All trainers and facilitators are leaders in their field.
- Modules are cross-disciplinary, practical and participatory.
- Accreditation for Continuing Professional Development.
- Opportunities for networking and future mentoring.
- Information on the latest publications, software and videos.

Training Schedule 2001/02

Full-day training sessions to be held at The Prince's Foundation in London. For more details on the training modules and further information contact The Prince's Foundation or visit www.princes-foundation.org

1. The New Challenges and Opportunities 5 October 2001
An introduction to the changing context of participation in planning and regeneration and an overview of the entire programme.

Trainers: Miffa Salter, Office for Public Management, John Thompson, John Thompson & Partners and David Wilcox.

2. Planning for Real 25 October 2001
How to plan, organise and follow-up a Planning for Real event.

Trainer: Margaret Wilkinson, Neighbourhood Initiatives Foundation.

3. E-Participation 8 November 2001
How to use digital technology in community planning and development.

Trainers: David Wilcox and Drew Mackie, Making the Net Work.

4. Designing Involvement Events 29 November 2001
How to plan and run events that involve people effectively and achieve results.

Trainer: Lynn Wetenhall, Projects in Partnership.

5. Citizens' Juries 5 December 2001
Why and how to set up and run a Citizens' Jury.

Trainer: Miffa Salter, The Office for Public Management.

6. Visioning 29 January 2002
How to involve all sectors of a community in creating a vision for the future.

Trainer: Richard Murray, The Centre for Participation, New Economics Foundation.

7. Placechecks 5 February 2002
How local people can investigate how their locality can be improved; the 'Placecheck' method.

Trainer: Robert Cowan, Urban Design Group.

8. Community Planning: An overview 28 February 2002
An introduction to the range of methods available and how to devise a community planning strategy for any situation.

Trainers: Nick Wates, and Alexandra Rook, The Civic Trust Regeneration Unit.

9. Community Planning Weekends 7 March 2002
How to use 'Community Planning Weekends' to create a community-led approach to planning and active neighbourhoods.

Trainers: Jonathan Davis, Debbie Radcliffe and John Thompson, John Thompson & Partners.

10. Making Partnerships Work 21 March 2002
An insight into a range of different partnership approaches and how to improve partnership working.

Trainer: Lynn Wetenhall, Projects in Partnership

11. Architecture Centres 4 April 2002
How to set up and run an 'Architecture Centre'; the choices available and the techniques that work.

Trainers: Nicole Crockett and Lisa Rigg, The Building Exploratory.

12. Group Facilitation Skills 25 April 2002
The role of the facilitator in a participatory event; the skills and qualities needed.

Trainer: Jonathan Dudding, Institute of Cultural Affairs UK.

13. Participatory Appraisal 2 May 2002
How to facilitate greater community understanding and involvement in planning using a range of participatory techniques.

Trainers: Almenia Comrie, The Community Council for Berkshire and John Rowley.

14. Community Planning in Conflict Zones 30 May 2002
How community led approaches can be used in war-affected areas and other conflict situations.

Trainers: Sultan Barakat, Sean Deely and Alpaslan Ozerdem, The Post-war Reconstruction & Development Unit, University of York.

15. User Online 6 June 2002
How to construct websites as a tool for quality consultation and involvement in community planning and regeneration projects.

Trainers: Ben Derbyshire, Rory Bergin and Colin Ainger, HTA Architects.

16. Community Planning & the System 27 June 2002
Opportunities for participation in the statutory planning process.

Trainer: Gideon Amos, Town & Country Planning Association.

17. Enquiry by Design Workshops 4 July 2002
How to set up and run planning events in which professionals and lay people can effectively work together on master planning.

Trainer: Richard De Cani, The Prince's Foundation.

Booking Form

Please complete this form using block capitals.

All seminars are £150 + VAT (£75 + VAT concessions, £100 Urban Village Forum members). Price includes lunch and information pack. 20% discount if booking for 3 sessions or more.

Title Surname

First Name

Organisation (if any)

Postal Address

City Postcode

Telephone Number Fax

Email Address

Any Special Requirements

Please clearly circle the seminars you wish to attend:

- | | | | | | |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|
| 1. | 2. | 3. | 4. | 5. | 6. |
| 7. | 8. | 9. | 10. | 11. | 12. |
| 13. | 14. | 15. | 16. | 17. | |

N.B. Please note there will be a cancellation fee of 25%.

Please tick box if you wish to attend the Programme Launch Reception on 15th October 2001, 5pm-9pm.

Signed Date

Please detach this booking form and return it with full payment by cheque payable to 'The Prince's Foundation' to:

Community Planning Training
The Prince's Foundation
19-22 Charlotte Road
London EC2A 3SG
Tel: 020 7613 8500
Fax: 020 7613 8599

Or book online at www.princes-foundation.org

