Community Planning: Principles A-Z

Principles A-Z

A-Z participation matrix suggestion

Project Stages

Initiate > Plan > Implement > Maintain >

	Initiate	Plan	Implement	Maintain
Self Help Community control	Community initiates action alone	Community plans alone	Community implements alone	Community maintains alone
Partnership Shared working and decision-making	Authorities & community jointly initiate action	Authorities & community jointly plan and design	Authorities & community jointly implement	Authorities & community jointly maintain
Consultation Authorities ask community for opinions	Authorities initiate action after consulting community	Authorities plan after consulting community	Authorities implement with community consultation	Authorities maintain with community consultation
Self Help One way flow of information Public relations	Authorities initiate action	Authorities plan and design alone	Authorities implement alone	Authorities maintain alone

A simple illustration of how different levels of participation are appropriate at different stages of a project. Most community planning operates in the shaded areas. Any party may initiate action but the crucial ingredient is joint planning and design, shown in the dark square. Implementation and maintenance will either be carried out jointly or by the authorities after consulting the community. See also Ladder of Participation in the Glossary.
